

REFLECTIONS

NARRATIVES of PROFESSIONAL HELPING

Volume 18

Spring 2012

Number 2

- 1 LETTER FROM THE EDITOR
Michael A. Dover
- 5 INTRODUCTION TO THE SPECIAL ISSUE ON FIELD EDUCATION
Denice Goodrich Liley and Martha V. K. Wilson (Co-Editors)
- ARTICLES
- 8 My Life as a Practicum Director
M. Diane Calloway-Graham
- 15 Ready or Not, Here We Come: Field Education and Developing a Professional Identity
Desiree Stepteau-Watson
- 19 From Direct Service to Director of Field Education
Diane Michaelsen
- 24 Reflections of a Field Director: An Opportunity to Look into the Past and See the Future
Elizabeth Harbeck Voshel
- 32 “Driving Ms. Jane Addams”: Students and Instructors Learn in Field Education
Jerry Watson
- 37 Finding Balance: Group Membership and Professional Development
Imad A. Mohamed and Robin R. Wingo
- 42 Creating Emotional Safety in the Classroom and in the Field
Laura Quiros, Lorin Kay, and Anne Marie Montijo
- 48 A Lesson Brought Home from Seminar
Misty L. Wall
- 51 The Social Work Student as Participant Observer in Group Therapy Training
Sarah E. LaRocque
- 60 A Funny Thing Happened at the Internship Today: A Reflection on Ethical Dilemmas, Decision-Making, and Consequences of a Questionable Field Work Situation
Katie Johnston-Goodstar
- 64 A Village, an Intern, Two Professors, and a Chief: Developing a Field Practicum within the Traditional Chieftaincy Structure of a Rural Village in Ghana
Dorie J. Gilbert, Tim Bailey, and Peter Dwumah
- 69 Dealing with Client Death and Dying: A Letter to Social Work Practicum Students
Amy Fulton
- 77 Challenges to Leadership in a Transitioning Environment
Merydawilda Colón and Sharon Hines Smith
- 82 Virtual Field Education: The Global Connection
Wanda Anderson, Nancy Ayers, Amy Cocha, Betsey Gray, Ellen Rondina & Mary Bragdon White
- 87 Reflecting on Field Education Partnerships on Migration and Immigration: A Canadian Perspective
Julie Drolet
- SPECIAL SECTION CALLS FOR NARRATIVES
- 92 People and Animals Together. Heart on Sleeves: The Transformative Power of the Human-Animal Bond.
Brinda Jegatheesan, Guest Editor
- 93 Therapeutic Relationships with Service Members, Veterans, and their Families
Cathleen A. Lewandowski, Guest Editor